

Opportunities for Innovation and the Implementation of
Best Practices

THE WASHINGTON STATE PARTNERSHIP COUNCIL ON JUVENILE JUSTICE

* Not a limited list
of opportunities

State Advisory Group (SAG) – as required by 42 U.S.C.5633 [Sec.223]

- A majority of which members (including the chairperson) shall not be full-time employees of the Federal, State, or local government.
- At least one-fifth of which members shall be under the age of 24 at the time of appointment.
- At least 3 members who have been or are currently under the jurisdiction of the juvenile justice system.

The Office of Juvenile Justice (OJJ) Director Ryan Pinto
The Office of Juvenile Justice and its staff will provide staffing to the new SAG.